It's the perfect introduction to flight training and lets you know what you can expect from further flying lessons. For more info visit:

Airmen will have to purchase a fishing license and apply for a free paddlebill permit. Airmen will also be responsible for all their food and lodging expenses. Visit their Facebook page for more information!

Sandhill Crane Hunt

Images of giant, sharp-billed birds descending amid trumpet-like calls might seem more like a deleted scene from Jurassic Park instead of a waterfowl hunt. Yet across many areas of the country, that scene plays out year after year, as a small but dedicated group of hunters pursue a unique bird; the Sandhill crane. Sandhill cranes are abundant in many parts of Colorado and migrate in huge, swirling flocks, often mixing with geese or ducks to feed in fields. Hunters must have a hunter safety card, a valid Colorado small game license/habitat stamp, a shotgun, a HIP number (go to: <http://wildlife.state.co.us> for more information), and appropriate hunting apparel. Lunch, beverages, and snacks will not be provided. However, transportation is included.
